

Zombie's Y'all!

Zombies Are Roaming Wild In Savannah!

About The Book:

Hungry zombies come from beyond the grave to feed on ghosts and humans.

A college student orders U-C-Zombies Indigo (purple) plastic and makes a pair of Z-tecter sunglasses. Suddenly people see ghost zombies munching their way through Savannah's spirit and human population.

Students and local townsfolk engage in a live-action, shoot 'em-up game of hunting and skill to end the Zombie Apocalypse that threatens to make Savannah a ghost town without any ghosts!

Note From Savannah Author, JK Bovi:

Zombies are hot! Zombies are cool! But zombies are also gross, ugly and a Zombie Apocalypse never ends well. I wanted to write a fun, zany zombie book for young readers that takes place in Savannah and I wanted to include our wonderful townfolks, students, and our resident ghosts.

This book is my third book and like my books, Wicked Haints and Dead Man's Fingers, it offers a light comical story that can be read in just a few hours.

Grab your Z-tectors, your Z-guns and join our heroes in this hilarious adventure to a hopefully happy ending of the Savannah Zombie Apocalypse!

Endorsements:

"Fun! Exciting! What could be better than zombies?! Zombie ghosts, of course! And Savannah will never be the same because of them! Be prepared to read this campy adventure in one sitting! It's that awesome!"

-Dinah Roseberry, author of No Way Out, Spider School, and Haunted Elevator

"JK Bovi takes us on a fun-filled romp through Savannah in this youthful tale of zombie apocalypse action! Young readers will enjoy the humor and the downright craziness in Zombies Y'all!" -Josh Vasquez, author of the Savannah Zombie Novel Series
